

Activity No. 5

Critical Thinking Activity: "Tracing Rizal's Growth as a Global Thinker"

Title: From Traveler to Thinker: Rizal's Transformation in His European Sojourns

Objective: To analyze how Rizal's travels and experiences abroad shaped his nationalist ideas, intellectual maturity, and reformist vision for the Philippines.

Instructions:

1. Read and Reflect:

Review Chapters 13–16 of your module focusing on Rizal's experiences in the United States, London, Paris, and Brussels.

2. Choose Three (3) Key Experiences from different places Rizal visited (for example:

- His impression of racial discrimination in America,
- His annotation of Morga's Sucesos in London,
- His articles in La Solidaridad in Paris,
- His writing of El Filibusterismo in Brussels).

3. Analyze Critically:

For each chosen experience, answer the following guide questions (in essay or short-paragraph form):

- a. What specific event or experience did Rizal encounter?
- b. What problem or issue did it make him realize?
- c. How did this experience influence Rizal's ideas or actions as a reformist/nationalist?
- d. If you were in Rizal's position, would you have reacted the same way? Why or why not?

4. Synthesize:

Conclude with a short reflection (10–17 sentences):

"How did Rizal's international experiences help him see the Philippines from a global perspective, and what lessons can today's youth learn from this?"

Output Format:

- One-page essay (handwritten, clean and organized)
- Use headings for each country or experience
- Include at least one meaningful quotation from Rizal's letters or writings
- Scan or picture your output and turn in in our GClass
- Not following instructions is deduction of points
